

THE NUTCRACKER

Ninth Avenue School of Dance, along with its resident performing dance companies, Aria and Showstoppers present the 5th annual production of "The Nutcracker".

Each year rising young stars and seasoned dancers take the stage to tell the story of one girl's Christmas dream of dancing sugar plums, bears, soldiers, and ferocious giant mice. Generations of families share the stage together, thus making the production truly a family event. Don't miss this unique production!

9th Avenue School of Dance started this holiday tradition in Federal Way. Come and see this unique production of "The Nutcracker" by Ninth Avenue School of Dance and directed by Artistic Director Christina Vandenberg-Suju.
